

19 Days of Prayer: Day 6
Sunday, March 29, 2020

Read and Reflect:

1 Timothy 6:11-19 ¹¹ But as for you, people of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. ¹² Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³ In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you ¹⁴ to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵ which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. ¹⁶ It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

¹⁷ As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. ¹⁸ They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, ¹⁹ thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Pray and intervene:

Pray for pastors, elders, and church leaders serving their churches and communities. We need special guidance, strength, and grace at this time as we see communities affected and infected by COVID-19. Pray that we would hear the Holy Spirit and have the right words at the right times with the right actions. We need help in many situations, daily, especially as we try to work in these conditions. Pray that the gospel would be proclaimed in and with our lives to all we are called to minister to. Pray that God would empower all members of the church to minister in little ways to others daily.

Guidance:

There are many things going on in the world. Take up a posture of prayer and continue to lift burdens to God. Give to God things you cannot handle. In these times we all must lean on God heavily. As you read and pray, know that God is good. Lift up your cares and the cares of many others now.
